

This is Not Art.

Produced by OCTAPOD

Cultural Festival

Thursday 1–Sunday 4 October, 2015

Look for the black balloons at Newcastle East venues

thisisnotart.org #TiNA2015

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS' FESTIVAL

CRACK
THEATRE FESTIVAL

... and special guests
Ladyz in Noyz Australia.

Headjam

Thursday

Throughout festival

New Physics

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Online

Curated by Roslyn Helper, New Physics is a virtual exhibition of internet art that explores ways of exhibiting and experiencing art online.

#exhibition #online #internetart

Throughout festival

The Social Sculpture Network

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / www.thesocialsculpturenetwork.org

Shared instructional artworks. Perform, explore, or experiment with ephemeral, instructional actions.

#onlineinstallation #interactive #youaretheart

Throughout festival

George Brandis Art Experience

Nana Gallery / The Emporium, 185 Hunter St Mall

The George Brandis Live Art Experience is an ongoing community-based art project, protesting against changes to arts funding announced in the 2015 Federal budget.

#exhibition

10am–4pm

Creative Pen Pals – Digital Skins

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

152–160 Hunter Street Mall

Artists from Darwin + artists from Melbourne + online collaboration + 3 day open-to-public creative development in Newcastle = WIP showing at The Crack House.

#development #interactive #onlinecollaboration

10am–4pm

Exhibition

(Official Critical Animals)

CRITICAL ANIMALS

The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

RE: Location is a group exhibition exploring heterotopias; imagining what is different, other - the non-hegemonic.

#exhibition #scrapthemap #heterotopias

10am–4pm

Neverland

(well, this is embarrassing)

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Roost / Level 1, 152–160 Hunter Street

A real late 90s teen bedroom. Suspended between worlds, the present bleeds into the past and magic invades the mundane.

#installation #interactive #StS

From 12pm

24 Hour Generator

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Work with respected makers Chris Ryan + Solomon Thomas in an intensive durational workshop that takes you from audience member to Festival Artist!

#masterclass #development #endurance

12.30–2pm

Federal Arts Funding Forum

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Join us to discuss the state of arts funding in light of a big year of changes. Featuring industry experts.

#forum

4–6pm

Meet and Greet

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Welcome to the family! Meet the Crack Theatre Festival artists, volunteers and staff who'll be sharing the weekend with you.

#meetus #networking #social

4–6pm

Meet And Greet

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Come meet the writers you'll be sharing microphones, beers and hostel rooms with for the next few nights.

#meetus #networking #social

6–7.30pm

Speed Dating

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Join us for some Speed Dating madness! Come and meet your new best NYWF friend!

#specialevent #games #networking

6–9pm

Coal River

CRITICAL ANIMALS

The Obelisk / Wolfe Street

Coal River is a site-specific series of projections that intervene in the vectors of Newcastle's historic space.

#installation #newcastle #historicspace

6.30–7.30pm

Artfit: Core Create – Essentials of the artistic experience

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

A series of mind, body + soul workouts to move the modern creative through foreboding dark forests, back to the wild arts adventure.

#performance #interactive #essentialartoil

7–10pm

Do It Ourselves

Culture Film Launch

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Do it Ourselves Culture: a documentary charting Sydney's colourful protest and party scene, from doofs to Reclaim the Streets.

#screening #DIYculture #protest

7.30–9.30pm

subbed in: XXL

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Foghorn / 218 King Street

Subbed in presents this XXL bill of writers just for NYWF. A must-see showcase of collaborative reading performances.

#poetry #performance #interactive

7.45–8.35pm

They've Already Won

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Harriet + Pierce explore the end of the world, money-hungry corporations and 39 Renaissance Babies Who Can't Even.

Comedy featuring pantsuits.

#performance #theendoftheworld #buzzfeed

9–9.50pm

Vladimir the Crow

– Whispering Ghoul

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Vladimir the Crow: scholar of horror, conduit to all things ghastly + ghoulish, grotesque clown and surreal song and dance man.

#performance #horror #escapism

9.30–11.00pm

Poetry Slam

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Foghorn / 218 King Street

Poetry Slam time! Come on down and let these poets show you what they've got.

#performance #poetry #slampoesy

10–10.50pm

Tragics

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

What's the difference between Greek mythology and modern day internalized misogyny? We can tell you, but will you believe us?

#performance #tragedy #humanbehaviour

11pm–12am

Late Night Reading:

Sex And Cyborgs

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

NYWF's Late Night Readings are back. Tonight it's all about Sex and Cyborgs. Come listen to some real good words.

#reading #performance #sex

11pm–12am

Primal Screen

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Primal Screen is the world's first IRL social network. Practically, it's a game show / debate / sparagmos.

#performance #interactive #socialnetwork

Friday

Throughout festival

The Social Sculpture Network

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / www.thesocialsculpturenetwork.org

Shared instructional artworks. Perform, explore, or experiment with ephemeral, instructional actions.

#onlineinstallation #interactive #youaretheart

Throughout festival

George Brandis Art Experience

Nana Gallery / The Emporium, 185 Hunter St Mall

The George Brandis Live Art Experience is an ongoing community-based art project, protesting against changes to arts funding announced in the 2015 Federal budget.

#exhibition

12am–12pm

24 Hour Generator

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Work with respected makers Chris Ryan + Solomon Thomas in an intensive durational workshop that takes you from audience member to Festival Artist!

#performance #endurance #guerillaartmaking

10am–4pm

Exhibition

(Official Critical Animals)

CRITICAL ANIMALS

The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

RE: Location is a group exhibition exploring heterotopias; imagining what is different, other - the non-hegemonic.

#exhibition #scrapthemap #heterotopias

10am–4pm

Neverland

(well, this is embarrassing)

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Roost / Level 1, 152–160 Hunter Street

A real late 90s teen bedroom. Suspended between worlds, the present bleeds into the past and magic invades the mundane.

#installation #interactive #StS

11am–12pm

Comics In Conversation

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Join comic creators Owen Heitmann and Jake Lawrence in conversation to discuss their industry and how they stay inspired.

#discussion #comics

11am–12pm

Ethics Of Gonzo Journalism

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

These writers discuss the lengths they go to 'for the story', and the responsibilities of writing outside their own experiences.

#panel #journalism

11am–12pm

Trans Stories

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

These trans writers discuss how the Australian literary landscape supports trans writing – and how it doesn't.

#panel #identity #gender

Throughout festival

Tiny Dancer

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Distributed Screens

A dance film and moving pop-up graffiti project, capturing imaginative inhabitation. Find all four films across TiNA!

#dance #installation #treasurehunt

12pm–1pm

Women Kicking Arse

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Women from traditionally 'male' writing scenes – rap, comics, gaming, science fiction, comedy – explain how they made it in their fields.

#panel #feminism #comedy

12–1pm

On Madness And Writing

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

It's long been romanticised in the writing community, but what are the realities of mental illness?

#panel #identity #mentalliness

12–1pm

These Poems Will

Not Be Televised

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Is it a poet's duty to be political?

These poets discuss how poetry can be part of the revolution.

#panel #poetry #politics

12–2pm

Image Theatre:

Writing Without Words

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Performance writers: leave your pens behind and break through barriers using the power of the image to free your writing.

#workshop #imagetheatre #devising

12–4pm

Connection Timeout

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An interactive experimental performance installation. How to Play: 1) Step into my space. 2) We have 3 minutes to find true connection.

#performance #interactive #connection

12–5pm

Artifact

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Art Project / Upstairs Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

500 personal artifacts & an invitation: give her a personal artifact, share its story and she will give you one of hers.

#installation #interactive #significance

1–1.45pm

Cooking With Music

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Cnr King & Watt Streets

Cooking with Music: an audible buffet where fresh organic songs are on the menu. It's street food for your earbuds!

#performance #music #fresh

1–2.30pm

Spatial Interventions

CRITICAL ANIMALS

The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

What's in a place? Our panellists contextualise creative spaces as complex containers of social relations, historical threads, and laboured heterotopias.

#panel #place #art

From 1.30pm

24 Hour Performance Poem

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Roost / 152–160 Hunter Street

24hrs non-stop adventure: self-realisation + fantastical stories. Will the artist emerge triumphant or lose his mind? Watch live or online via livestream.

#performance #durational #awe

2–3pm

Artfit: Abstractercise –

A gymnasium for the imagination

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

A series of mind, body + soul workouts to move the modern creative through foreboding dark forests, back to the wild arts adventure.

#performance #interactive #essentialartoil

2–3pm If You Can't Handle The Heat

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

These writers discuss what to do when you're afraid to hit send – and whether some stories are creative collateral damage.

#panel #memoir #realtalk

2–3pm Writing Sex

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Sex writers mine intimacy and relationships in a public arena. How do they navigate the space between personal and political?

#panel #sex #memoir

2–4pm Erasures Poetry Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Interested in blackout poetry? In this workshop with Hera Lindsay Bird, you'll create new meanings from texts using different materials and techniques.

#workshop #poetry

2–4pm Freelance Writing Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street

Master the art of pitching, money-making, ABNs and dealing with editors in this extremely handy freelancing 101 workshop.

#workshop #freelancing #professionaldevelopment

2–4pm Improvisation: Improv Yourself

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Always want to know what's going to happen next? Like to stick to the script? Hate saying 'yes'? Improv Yourself.

#workshop #improvisation

2–4pm Word Travels Poetry Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Newcastle Regional Library / 1 Laman Street

Want to take your poems off the page? This workshop teaches you the ins and outs of slam poetry.

#workshop #poetry

2–5pm Student Media Symposium

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

From design to editorial privilege and digital journalism, our series of panels reveal how Australia's students shape the media scene.

#conference #journalism #studentmedia

2.30–4pm Uncertain Spaces

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

What if the comforting, material certainties of daily life are not so certain? In partnership with the University of Newcastle.

#panel #materiality #postindustrial

3–4pm Parenthood And Writing

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Sometimes young writers are also young parents. So how do you navigate the tensions of parenthood and writing?

#panel #family #identity

3–4pm Queercaucus

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street

Do you identify as a queer writer? Then Queercaucus is for you! Come discuss issues affecting the queer writing community.

#discussion #sexuality #identity

3–4pm Writing The Body

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Sex, surgeries, diseases, eating disorders... These writers discuss the ways in which they write about bodies while still retaining agency.

#panel #identity #feminism

3.15–4.15 The Ink Trail

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An artist's homecoming, a language on the verge of extinction, and one family's struggle with the legacy of colonialism.

#performance #australianidentity #exile

4–5pm Writing For Good

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Can writing save the world? Can writing as activism work? These writers discuss how writing and activism intersect.

#panel #politics #activism

4–5pm Writing In Pictures

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Screenwriting, comic writing, vlogging... Join these writers as they discuss how to write visually and work collaboratively.

#panel #crossplatform #screenwriting

4–6pm Podcasting Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street

Podcasts – it seems like everyone has one! This workshop will teach you everything you need to know to make your own.

#workshop #podcasts

4–6pm Worldbuilding Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

This structured workshop offers insight into creating fictional worlds as well as shaping the memorable characters that inhabit them.

#workshop #specfic #genre

4.30–5.15pm Hectoring Apocalyptica

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

We respond to predictions of severe global water scarcity over the coming decades, and look at the conflicts that might arise.

#performance #interactive #climatechange

4.30–5.30pm PressOne4Love

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An alien research facility, a remote-controlled human, a saucy rendezvous - the power is yours!

#performance #interactive #uncannyseduction

5–6pm Coming Of Queerness

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

These queer writers discuss coming out and coming of age, both in their writing and their lives.

#panel #sexuality #identity

5–6pm TED-esque Talks – Into the Deep

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

In these TED-esque Talks, writers and storytellers share what they know – from mining disasters, to freelancing, to connecting with diaspora.

#performance #ideas #identity

5–6pm The Play's The Thing

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

We put the spotlight on the stage as young bards spill the beans on the playwrighting industry.

#panel #theatre #playwriting

5.45–6.45pm Colossi

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Pacific Park

Scott plays with his imaginary friend Jack. They destroy monsters and eat tacos. But then the Colossi stomp through...

#performance #imagination #play

5.45–6.45pm Cooking With Music

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Fresh organic beats and rhymes made-to-order and with hands-on improvised & interactive flavour.

#performance #interactive

6–9pm Coal River

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Obelisk / Wolfe Street

Coal River is a site-specific series of projections that intervene in the vectors of Newcastle's historic space.

#installation #newcastle #historicspace

6–9pm Exhibition Opening (Official Critical Animals)

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

Come along to the opening night of RE: Location - a group exhibition exploring heterotopias; imagining what is different, other - the non-hegemonic.

#exhibition #scrapthemap #heterotopias

6.15–8.15pm Welcome to Kandos: the cementing of an unlikely friendship Screening & Q&A

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

When a cutting edge contemporary art festival takes over a dying cement producing town in rural Australia, culture clash and cultural cringe unexpectedly give way to the transformative power of art.

#screening

6.30–8.30pm Literary Trivia

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Great Northern / 83-89 Scott Street

A staple of the National Young Writers' Festival, our Literary Trivia will sort the amateurs from the experts.

#interactive #games #specialevents

7–8pm Crack Family Dinner: Performance Lecture – Art + Knowledge

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

BYO Dinner + informal chat about hot topics around the Festival. Join programmed artists working in the emerging form of Performance Lectures.

#discussion #performancelectures #dinner

7–10pm HoboTechno's Nomadic Projections

CRITICAL ANIMALS
Outdoor/Roving

You'll find our interactive, digital narratives wandering the neglected public spaces scattered throughout the CBD. Come and find us!

#installation #projections #publicspace

7–9pm Australian Poetry Slam – Newcastle Final

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Newcastle Regional Library / 1 Laman Street

Watch 16 poets duke it out in the Australian Poetry Slam Newcastle Final.

#performance #poetry #slampoetry

8–8.50pm Please Mind My Brother

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Go down the rabbit hole of schizophrenia and family love. A true story about Sara and her brother.

#performance #autobiographical #mentalhealth

8pm to late The Follower Arts Party

Shh- location to be revealed on the night

The Follower are planning a good ol'e fashioned arts party over the TiNA long weekend. Featuring weirdo installations, live performances & solid tunes.

#party

8.15–9.05pm Tragics

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

What's the difference between Greek mythology and modern day internalized misogyny? We can tell you, but will you believe us?

#performance #tragedy #humanbehaviour

8.30–10pm What Makes A Great Podcast

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Five writers and producers discuss their favourite podcasts, how they write for podcasts, and how you can start your own.

#roundtable #podcasts

9.15–10.15pm Asian Ghost-ery Store

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Raised in the aisles of Asian grocery stores, the time has come for Shan + Yaya to escape—and haunt modern Australia.

#performance #improv #culturaldiversity

10–11pm Up for Debate: Are Young People Killing The News

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Is the rise of the listicle killing "real" journalism? Are millennials murdering the news? Come pick a side!

#debate #journalism #news

10.30–11.20pm Business Unfinished

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An interwoven collection of performed, pre-recorded, verbatim audio interviews conducted with Australians who have experienced paranormal phenomena in their family homes.

#performance #cabaretexorcism #ghosts

11pm–12am Late Night Reading: Flirting With The Law

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

NYWF's famous Late Night Readings are back, and tonight we're flirting with the law. Cute ;)

#reading #performance

Saturday

1.30am–1.30pm 24 Hour Performance Poem

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Roost / 152–160 Hunter Street

24hrs non-stop adventure: self-realisation + fantastical stories. Will the artist emerge triumphant or lose his mind? Watch live or online via livestream.

#performance #durational #awe

Throughout festival The Social Sculpture Network

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / www.thesocialsculpturenetwork.org

Shared instructional artworks. Perform, explore, or experiment with ephemeral, instructional actions.

#onlineinstallation #interactive #youareheart

Throughout festival Tiny Dancer

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Distributed Screens

A dance film and moving pop-up graffiti project, capturing imaginative inhabitation. Find all four films across TiNA!

#dance #installation #treasurehunt

Throughout festival George Brandis Art Experience

Nana Gallery / The Emporium, 185 Hunter St Mall

The George Brandis Live Art Experience is an ongoing community-based art project, protesting against changes to arts funding announced in the 2015 Federal budget.

#exhibition

9.30am–1pm Walking tour: Clifftop Tales

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Cliff Walk

Join us on a walk along Newcastle's beautiful cliffs as we reflect on our home away from home.

#newcastle #storytelling #performance

10am–12pm Zine Zone Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Come make a mini-zine in a quiet, safe environment, with zines available to browse and inspire. Connector pens provided.

#workshop #zines #selfpublishing

10am–4pm Exhibition (Official Critical Animals)

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

RE: Location is a group exhibition exploring heterotopias; imagining what is different, other - the non-hegemonic.

#exhibition #scrapthemap #heterotopias

10am–4pm Neverland (well, this is embarrassing)

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Roost / Level 1, 152–160 Hunter Street

A real late 90s teen bedroom. Suspended between worlds, the present bleeds into the past and magic invades the mundane.

#installation #interactive #StS

10am–6pm Augmentation Lab

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Elderly Citizen's Centre / Cnr Laing and Morgan Street

Augmentation Open Studio: Enhance the human body. Merge with technology. Observe sound artists and physical theatre makers explore Transhuman Augmentation.

#development #augmentation #transhumanism

11am–12pm Love Is All You Need

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

How do you write about love without being cheesy? These writers discuss the way their work engages with love.

#panel #romance #fiction

11am–12pm Sports Talk: Writing Beyond the Genre

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

What makes for good sportswriting, anyway? And who on earth is reading all those cricket recaps?

#panel #sports #journalism

11am–12pm Writing And Faith

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

In Australia, where faith is so often political, how do Australian writers of faith reconcile religious practice with writing practice?

#panel #religion #identity

11am–12.15pm Embodying 'woman'

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

Join three artists on a sensory journey exploring gender, culture, identity and place through a range of storytelling processes.

#panel #feminism #gender

12–1pm Part-Time Culture

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Are all cultural workers destined for part-time work? In partnership with the University of Western Sydney.

#panel #culture #work

12–1pm Screenwriters In Conversation

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Come join Magda Wozniak and Niki Aken in conversation as they discuss the ins and outs of the screenwriting biz.

#inconversation #screenwriting

12–1.15pm Things That Are Left Behind: Preserving Performance

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Join us to talk about how conservation, criticism and curation shapes how we talk about and remember performance.

#panel #talkaboutperformance #critics

12–1.30pm Big Issues: Press Freedom, Whistleblowing And National Security

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

From defamation to detention and data retention, privacy to digital permanency, these writers dive into the Aussie political underbelly.

#bigissues #politics #activism

12–2pm Bouffon: The Charming Grotesque

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

An introduction to Bouffon - a darker style of clowning. Bouffons are devious creatures which revel in parodying society and illuminating its hypocrisies. Sign up at cracktheatrefestival@gmail.com

#workshop #bouffon #darkClown

12–3pm Grant Writing: Hot Tips for Hot Artists

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Sharpen your pencils, grant seekers. Bring an idea to work on. Produce a killer app in a cut-throat funding round. Sign up at cracktheatrefestival@gmail.com

#MasterClass #GrantWriting #WritingParty

12–4pm Connection Timeout

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An interactive experimental performance installation. How to Play: 1) Step into my space. 2) We have 3 minutes to find true connection.

#performance #interactive #connection

12–5pm Artifact

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Art Project / Upstairs Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

500 personal artifacts & an invitation: give her a personal artifact, share its story and she will give you one of hers.

#Installation #Interactive #significance #PersonalArtifacts #trade

12.30–1.45pm Art/Space, Nowhere

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

Experimental findings from other worlds, this panel explores experiences that drift from what we perceive as 'real life'.

#panel #digital #space #mars

1–2pm Out of Canberra: The Politics Panel

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

What is Australia's place on the world's stage? Are our politicians 'leaders', 'followers' or 'detractors'? An insider's/outsider's view of #auspol.

#panel #auspol #politics

1–3pm Cryptic Crosswords Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street (upstairs)

Come learn the tips and tricks of the cryptic crossword trade – a valuable life skill if ever there were one!

#workshop #crypticcrosswords #justforfun

2–3pm Artfit: Artwork – A step by step guide to facing the boring

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

A series of mind, body + soul workouts to move the modern creative through foreboding dark forests, back to the wild arts adventure.

#performance #interactive #essentialartoil

2–3pm Big Issues: Slaying Australian Sacred Cows

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

In so many ways, silence is built into the Australian cultural landscape, but these writers call it like it is.

#panel #bigissues #identity

2–3pm Publishing How To

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Editors, publishers and writers share their tips and tricks of the trade: from navigating the slush pile, to pro pitching.

#panel #publishing #professionaldevelopment

2–3.45pm Be.Poetic.Punks – Part 1

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

An experiment in culture hacking by making us do what we believe in combining punk and poesis.

#workshop #punk #poesis

2–4pm Digital Showcase

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Don't miss this series of interactive digital events, presentations and readings that explore the ways writing and technology can intersect.

#performance #digital #crossplatform

2–4pm Screenwriting Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Ever been curious about what lies beyond the closed door of a TV story room? This workshop will reveal all.

#workshop #editing #screenwriting

3–4pm Regional Writing

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Writers from Byron Bay, Tamworth, SA and remote NT are here to convince their regional peers to stick around.

#panel #identity #regional

3–5pm The Pitch

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street

A practical guide to submitting your manuscript pitch to commercial publishing houses, from a former gatekeeper of the 'slush pile'.

#workshop #publishing #professionaldevelopment

3.15–4.15pm WouldMan: Let's Draw

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Curve Gallery / 61 Hunter Street

A one man show for everybody! Fuelled with blockbusting sketches! WouldMan's artistic adventures pose the greatest subject in art!

#performance #interactive #physicaltheatre

3.30–4pm Godlike Status 1.5

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Production Hub / 4 Crown Street

When will our real life identities become secondary to our online personas? Enter the immersive private world of pro-gamer CRAZYMOOSE69.

#performance #gaming #interactive

3.30–4.20pm Vladimir the Crow – Whispering Ghoul

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Vladimir the Crow: scholar of horror, conduit to all things ghastly + ghoulish, grotesque clown and surreal song and dance man.

#performance #horror #escapism

4–5.30pm Art/Space/Location

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

We discuss the implications of locative art practices on experiences of space, social mechanisms, language, and interactions with the sublime.

#panel #art #location

Departs 6.30pm, finishes 7.30pm Advertising Marketing Publicity

CRITICAL ANIMALS
START: 26 Brook Street, Cooks Hill
END: Thurnham and Teece, 197 Corlette Street, The Junction

Join artists Emily Parsons-Lord and Deb Mansfield for a shot of sherry and a hike to the neon sign 'Advertising Marketing Publicity'.

#event #AMP #neon

4–5pm Editing Ignorance

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

As an editor, it's your job to ensure your writers don't embarrass themselves. But how do you edit out ignorance?

#panel #editing

4–5pm When the Internet Fails You

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Writers share all the ways the internet has let them down – and how to deal when the trolls won't quit.

#panel #feminism #identity

4–6pm Comics With Friends and Strangers

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Comics with Friends and Strangers (a monthly drawing night in Adelaide) help you draw with words and write with pictures.

#workshop #comics #zines

4–6pm

Friends With Benefits: Sharing is Caring

CRITICAL ANIMALS
26 Brooks Street, Cooks Hill

Friends with Benefits: Sharing is Caring is a one-night only art exhibition of inter-town love and good-hearted nepotism.
#exhibition #sharingiscaring #exhibition

4.10–4.30pm

Godlike Status 1.5

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
The Production Hub / 4 Crown Street

When will our real life identities become secondary to our online personas? Enter the immersive private world of pro-gamer CRAZYMOOSE69.
#performance #gaming #interactive

4.30–5.30pm

Critical Game Show

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Learn how to write constructive critique by helping Serious Writers play silly games! Two teams of critics face off.
#interactive #games #specialevents

4.45–5.35pm

They’ve Already Won

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Harriet + Pierce explore the end of the world, money-hungry corporations and 39 Renaissance Babies Who Can’t Even. Comedy featuring pantsuits.
#performance #theendoftheworld #buzzfeed

5–6pm

Weird Science

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Science writing might seem reserved for people with PhDs, but it’s not always like that! These science writers tell all.
#panel #science

5–6pm

Writing About Trauma

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

How do we practice self-care when we write about trauma? Can writing about trauma work as a healing process?
#panel #health #identity

5–6.30pm

Songwriting Deconstruction

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Foghorn / 218 King Street

Inspired by hit podcast Song Exploder, musicians will take us through the process of creating one of their songs.
#workshop #music #songwriting

5.30–6pm

Charlotte Badger: Woman, Convict, Pirate

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Customs House / 1 Bond Street

A unique Australian story - bonnets and bayonets but not as you’ve ever seen them before. Ten performers on a pirate ship!
#performance #circus #fire

5.45–6.45pm

Colossi

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Pacific Park

Scott plays with his imaginary friend Jack. They destroy monsters and eat tacos. But then the Colossi stomp through...
#performance #imagination #play

6–7pm

It’s All In The Family

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Family isn’t always happy to appear in your writing, even if they’re great material. These writers have it figured out, though.
#panel #family #memoir

6–7pm

PressOne4Love

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An alien research facility, a remote-controlled human, a saucy rendezvous - the power is yours!
#performance #interactive #uncannyseduction

6–7pm

Up For Debate: Always Write What You Know

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street (Downstairs)

Should you always write what you know? Is it ok to speak for others? Here’s your chance to find out!
#debate

6–9pm

Coal River

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Obelisk / Wolfe Street

Coal River is a site-specific series of projections that intervene in the vectors of Newcastle’s historic space.
#installation #newcastle #historicspace

6.30-8pm

Women in Experimental Music

LADYZ IN NOYZ AUSTRALIA
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Join experimental music organisation Ladyz in Noyz as they delve into the experiences and challenges for women in this male dominated industry.
#panel

7–8pm

Crack Family Dinner: The Mind Laid Bare: Mental Illness and Disability in Performance

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

BYO dinner + informal chat about hot topics around the Festival. Join programmed artists presenting mental illness and disability in their work.
#discussion #mentallilnessanddisability

7–10pm

HoboTechno’s Nomadic Projections

CRITICAL ANIMALS
Outdoor/Roving

You’ll find our interactive, digital narratives wandering the neglected public spaces scattered throughout the CBD. Come and find us!
#installation #projections #publicspace

8–11pm

Ladyz in Noyz Showcase

LADYZ IN NOYZ AUSTRALIA
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Join Australia and the UKs most exciting female sound, noise and experimental artists as they launch Ladyz in Noyz Australia Vol. II
#gig

8pm–12am

Enchantment Under the Sea Ball

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Central Bar / 145 King Street

A beloved festival tradition, the 2015 TiNA Enchantment Under the Sea Ball must not be missed. Dressing up strongly encouraged.
#party #ball #costumeparty

8.15–9.05pm

Please Mind My Brother

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Go down the rabbit hole of schizophrenia and family love. A true story about Sara and her brother.
#performance #autobiographical #mentalheath

8.15–9pm

Home

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Verbatim stories from those who have left home behind, and those who have never known it, woven together to find common ground.
#performance #definingandfindinghome

8.15–9.15pm

Primal Screen

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Foghorn / 218 King Street

Primal Screen is the world’s first IRL social network. Practically, it’s a game show / debate / sparagmos.
#performance #interactive #socialnetwork

9.30–10.30pm

Asian Ghost-ery Store

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Raised in the aisles of Asian grocery stores, the time has come for Shan + Yaya to escape—and haunt modern Australia.
#performance #improv #culturaldiversity

10.30–11.30pm

Finger Your Friends

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

Performance-art+Rock concert+punk political activism. The unwanted love child of Peaches and TISM following advice from the Clickhole editorial board.
#music #performance #feminism

11pm–late

Saturday Night Afterparty

Crown & Anchor Hotel / 189 Hunter Street

Had a ball at the Ball? Keep on dancing into the night at Sprout@Crown & Anchor - just a shimmy away!
#gig

11.30pm–12.20am

Business Unfinished

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An interwoven collection of performed, pre-recorded, verbatim audio interviews conducted with Australians who have experienced paranormal phenomena in their family homes.
#performance #cabaretexorcism #ghosts

Sunday

Throughout festival

The Social Sculpture Network

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / www.thesocialsculpturenetwork.org

Shared instructional artworks. Perform, explore, or experiment with ephemeral, instructional actions.
#onlineinstallation #interactive #youareheart

Throughout festival

Tiny Dancer

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Distributed Screens

A dance film and moving pop-up graffiti project, capturing imaginative inhabitation. Find all four films across TiNA!
#dance #installation #treasurehunt

Throughout festival

George Brandis Art Experience

Nana Gallery / The Emporium, 185 Hunter St Mall

The George Brandis Live Art Experience is an ongoing community-based art project, protesting against changes to arts funding announced in the 2015 Federal budget.
#exhibition

Various times

The Joke Busker

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Various locations including Hunter Street Mall, Literary Picnic, Staple Manor

Chris Knight wanted to be a paid comedy writer, so taking a cue from poetry buskers, he hit the streets of Adelaide.
#performance #comedy #street

10am–4pm

Neverland

(well, this is embarrassing)
CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Roost / Level 1, 152–160 Hunter Street

A real late 90s teen bedroom. Suspended between worlds, the present bleeds into the past and magic invades the mundane.
#installation #interactive #StS

11am–12pm

Across the Ditch

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

We discuss what the literary environment is like for our WA writer friends across the ditch.
#panel #newzealand

11am–12pm

All About Mentorship

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

How do you find someone willing to mentor you? And how does a mentorship work? These mentors and mentees share all.
#roundtable #professionaldevelopment #mentoring

11am–12pm

Other Englishes

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

How is migrant diaspora language shaping Australian writing? And what’s it like to create language on the linguistic periphery?
#panel #identity #race

11am–3pm

Exhibition (Official Critical Animals)

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

RE: Location is a group exhibition exploring heterotopias; imagining what is different, other - the non-hegemonic.
#exhibition #scrapthemap #heterotopias

11am–4pm

Zine Fair

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Location TBA

NYWF’s famous Zine Fair is back! Zines, stalls and events galore. To register for a zine stall please email zines@youngwritersfestival.org
#workshop #zines #selfpublishing

12–1pm

Big Issues: Keeping People Interested: A Writer’s Hardest Job?

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

How do you beat the news cycle and engage readers? These writers discuss how to maintain conversations around important issues.
#panel #bigissues #journalism

12–1pm

The Invisible Contributor

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL
The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

How much impact can and should an editor have? When’s it more important to hold back than have your say?
#panel #editing

12–1.30pm

Auto/Biographical Performance

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Elderly Citizens Centre / Laing Street

An intimate workshop for performers and creators with a focus on creating and sharing autobiographical stories, and personal story exchange and development. Sign up at cracktheatrefestival@gmail.com
#workshop #auto/biographicalperformance

3–4.30pm

Exhibition Panel

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

Join artists from 2015’s group exhibition RE: Location for a discussion about their arts practice.
#panel #exhibition #artists

12–1.30pm

Follow the Dusty Red Road: Collabs, Tours and Residencies, Oh My!

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL
Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

We chat with people who work beyond the local. Cross-country collaborations, tours, and interstate residencies in our huge continent.
#panel #collaborations #touring

12–1.15pm

Inclusive Practice, Community and the Arts

CRITICAL ANIMALS
The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

A lively panel discussion between performance, writing and visual arts/design practitioners around social inclusion and creating of dynamic thought-provoking art.
#panel #socialinclusioninhearts

12–2pm Clowning: Infinite Stupidity

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

An introduction to the world of clown theatre and the art of finding your inner idiot.

#workshop #clowning #dobeanidiot

12–2pm Renoise Tracker Workshop

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

A beginners guide to Tracker music hosted by some of Australia's best Tracker artists. High energy, quick decisions - are you game?

#workshop

12–4pm Connection Timeout

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An interactive experimental performance installation. How to Play: 1) Step into my space. 2) We have 3 minutes to find true connection.

#performance #interactive #connection

12–5pm Artifact

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Art Project / Upstairs Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

500 personal artifacts & an invitation: give her a personal artifact, share its story and she will give you one of hers.

#installation #interactive #significance

1–1.45pm FriendQuest

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Location TBA

Paired with a new best friend, audience members embark on a series of adventures and experiences that celebrate and test their virtues as a friend.

#performance #interactive #findafriend

1–2.30pm Be.Poetic.Punks – Part 2

CRITICAL ANIMALS

The Lock-Up / 90 Hunter Street

Day 2 in culture hacking by making us do what we believe in combining punk and poesis.

#workshop #designfiction

1–3pm TurboDetective 3000: A Seaside Mystery

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Various, East Newcastle / outdoors

Unlock this mystery through an interactive experience on the streets of Newcastle. For further details refer to the NYWF website.

#interactive #games #newcastle

1–4pm Literary Picnic

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Location TBA

The Lit Picnic is a jam-packed afternoon of book clubs, literary lawn games, and performances.

#specialevent #games #zines

2–3pm Artfit: Emotionalise – Be the master of your own internal landscape

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

A series of mind, body + soul workouts to move the modern creative through foreboding dark forests, back to the wild arts adventure.

#performance #interactive #essentialartoil

2–3pm Romance Is A Feminist Genre

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Is it possible to have an appreciation for love stories and alpha men and still be a feminist?

#panel #romance #feminism

2–3pm Show Me The Money

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

How do young writers afford to do this whole 'writing' thing? These writers tell us how they stay afloat.

#panel #freelancing #professionaldevelopment

2–3pm Sonic Kids

LADYZ IN NOYZ AUSTRALIA

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Children (aged 6 to 11) can explore how sounds are created with scientist and musician Dr Claire Pannell and build sound devices to take home.

#workshop

2–4pm Digital Poetry Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

What is digital poetry, anyway? Karen Murphy explains - and teaches you how to use digital writing programs. BYO laptop.

#workshop #digital #poetry

2.15–3pm FriendQuest

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Location TBA

Paired with a new best friend, audience members embark on a series of adventures and experiences that celebrate and test their virtues as a friend.

#performance #interactive #findafriend

2.30–2.50pm Godlike Status 1.5

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Production Hub / 4 Crown Street

When will our real life identities become secondary to our online personas? Enter the immersive private world of pro-gamer CRAZYMOOSE69

#performance #gaming #interactive

3–4pm A Newcastle Story

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Newcastle Museum / 6 Workshop Way

In partnership with the Newcastle Museum, brilliant young storytellers delve into the town's history: from lightbulbs to biscuits to coal.

#performance #history #newcastle

3–4pm Mixing Your Sound

LADYZ IN NOYZ AUSTRALIA

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Learn to make contact mics, solder, circuit bend, alter toys, and hack any noisemakers for cheap, gratifying and experimental musical thrills.

#workshop

3–4pm YA Genre: Ahead Of The Curve

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

YA is often at the cutting edge when it comes to diversity. These writers explain why.

#roundtable #genre #youngadult

3.10–3.30pm Godlike Status 1.5

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

The Production Hub / 4 Crown Street

When will our real life identities become secondary to our online personas? Enter the immersive private world of pro-gamer CRAZYMOOSE69

#performance #gaming #interactive

3.15–4.15pm The Ink Trail

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

An artist's homecoming, a language on the verge of extinction, and one family's struggle with the legacy of colonialism.

#performance #australianidentity #exile

3.15–4.45pm Augmentation Forum

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Elderly Citizens Centre / Laing Street

Augmentation Showing and Forum: Join the discussion as artists show moments from the collaborative lab and discuss Transhuman Augmentation, Fear and Performance.

#performance #forum #augmentation

4–6pm Make Your Own Text-Based Game Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

Staple Manor / 48 Watt Street

Come and experience first-hand the process of creating a simple text-based game. BYO laptop.

#workshop #games #digital

4–6pm Writing To Constraint Workshop

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

Part showcase, part workshop, this event will explain the different ways writing to constraint can improve and inspire your writing.

#workshop #literature #experimental

4.30–5.30pm Creative Pen Pals – Digital Skins

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / 209 Hunter Street

Artists from Darwin + artists from Melbourne + online collaboration + 3 day open-to-public creative development in Newcastle = WIP showing at The Crack House.

#performance #onlinecollaboration #findapenpal

4.30–5.:30 Short Stories

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Gun Club / 55 Watt Street

These writers are making the most of the short story boom, and are here to discuss their chosen medium.

#panel #literature #fiction

4.30–6pm Women Of Colour

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

Women of colour are often silenced or misrepresented in the writing community. These writers celebrate the work of women of colour.

#performance #feminism #identity

5.45–6.30pm Hectoring Apocalyptica

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

We respond to predictions of severe global water scarcity over the coming decades, and look at the conflicts that might arise.

#performance #interactive #climatechange

6–7pm Up For Debate: News vs. Satire

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

This debate pits serious journos against satirists. Is hard news best served cold or is funnier always better?

#debate #journalism #news

7–8.10pm No One Cares About Your Cat

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

No one cares what you made for dinner. No one cares that you're up at 5am. No one cares that you're lonely.

#performance #socialmedia #disconnection

7–8.30pm Facy Fact

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Great Northern / 83-89 Scott Street

This comedy game show pits NYWF's best minds against each other. Battle it out in a serious of ridiculous games.

#performance #games #specialevents

8.30–9.30pm Write-Off!

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Great Northern / 83-89 Scott Street

Write-off is an elimination-style game show where writers test their word-smithing chops in a series of challenges.

#performance #games #specialevent

8.30pm–12am Closing Party

CRACK THEATRE FESTIVAL

Crack House / Market Square, Hunter Street Mall

See your Festival experience out with a bang at the closing party. Featuring special guest DJs and your best dance moves.

#party #partytime! #excellent

9.30–10pm Panelbeaters

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Great Northern / 83-89 Scott Street

Luke Carman and David M Henley wage banter warfare. Truth bomb, rant, pun and quip with pugilistic verbosity.

#performance #audienceparticipation #rant

10.30–11.30pm Late Night Readings: Breakups and Breakdowns

NATIONAL YOUNG WRITERS FESTIVAL

The Royal Exchange / 34 Bolton Street

NYWF's famous Late Night Readings are back. Tonight it's all about breakups and breakdowns, so bring the tissues.

#reading #performance #romance

